

PARENTING WELL IN A MEDIA AGE

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2009

Join us for this presentation and lively discussion!

The Ellis School is proud to welcome speaker, author, and noted media literacy expert, Gloria DeGaetano, to campus. Gloria speaks, consults, and writes about important issues that affect modern-day, media age families. In this presentation she will discuss how parents deal daily with profound societal problems and energy-draining challenges, and, unfortunately, are losing their rightful role as creators and transmitters of culture, to an artificial, industry-generated "culture."

Gloria is a sought-after speaker at major national and international conferences because she shares her real-life experiences with wit and humor, to convey compassion and empathize with her audiences.

Reception: 6:30 PM

Presentation and discussion: 7:00 – 8:30 PM

The Ellis School, 6425 Fifth Avenue, Shadyside
