Just in time for holiday gift-giving, the Parent Coaching Institute, an organization which supports parents, is teaming up with a legendary Seattle bookstore, Elliott Bay Book Company, to offer a special book-shopping event. Please follow the steps below.

1. Assistance in selecting titles is available. Visit www.elliottbaybook.com to view recommendations and search by title, author, or keyword, but please, no Web site orders. The PCI does not receive a percentage of sales from the Web site.

2. Identifying yourself as a "PCI Friend", email your book selections to kmallman@elliottbaybook.com or call Karen at 800-962-5311. Your email should include your name, phone number, and selected book titles with author names. Do not include credit card information in your email. Elliott Bay Book Company will contact you by phone for this information and provide your order total.

Shipping charges apply. Tax applies to books shipped to WA state addresses. Shoppers will be informed of their shipping options and given an order total with shipping and tax before their order is finalized. Textbooks may not be ordered through this event. Some special order books may not be delivered in time for the holidays.

10% of retail price will be donated to the PCI while supporting a great independent bookstore.
